Description

A pair of nightstands from the Veneto region, dating from the late 18th to the early 19th century, made of rosewood veneer with a fir wood frame. The nightstands feature a rectangular design with a drawer in the upper section and a lower compartment closed by a door, both fitted with their original brass handles and hardware. The lower section is characterized by saber-shaped legs. The nightstands have been cleaned and wax-polished, preserving their original patina. The overall condition is good.
