Description

An exceptional pair of monumental French sculptures depicting palm trees, crafted from gilded wrought metal in the 1970s and designed in the iconic style of Maison Jansen. Each sculpture rises from an elegant cubic black glass base edged with gilded metal, forming a striking architectural foundation that beautifully highlights the palm tree's lush foliage. The meticulously articulated trunks support a spectacular crown composed of individually forged and gilded palm fronds, lending the trees remarkable depth, movement, and sculptural presence. Inspired by the glamorous interiors of the 1960s and 1970s, these decorative palm trees embody the sophisticated neoclassical aesthetic characteristic of Maison Jansen, whose luxurious creations have graced prestigious residences,
