Description

Large Exceptional And Impressive Pair Of Bronze And Enamel Champlevé Japanese Table Lamps. It is exceptional to find Japanese champlevé vases with an Egyptian decoration. Decorated with Egyptian ornaments in the champlevé technique with inlaid coloured enamel standing on wooden base. The champlevé technic means, that in the bronze by casting segments with decorations are saved, these segments are then filled with enamel and then placed in the kiln and the enamel melts down to the bronze and after that have been polished. Japanese circa 1900-25. Rewired with old style fabric cable. Total height 62cm, till top of fitting 32cm, base 20cm diameter, the pleated white shades 43cm diameter.
