Description

Désiré-François Millet : Pair of "Couple" daguerreotypes, quarterplate, approximately 10 × 7 cm, mounted in blackened wooden oval frames measuring 15.5 × 13 cm (the woman's frame has some damage). Despite oxidation of the plates, the images remain clearly legible and depict a couple from high society, richly dressed and striking flattering poses. Annotations on the back indicate that the man is 25 years old and the young woman 19 years old, and that the photograph was taken in 1855.
