Description

Soup bowl with lid, decorated with magenta-colored landscapes framed by cobalt blue bands embellished with gold accents, showing some wear (see photo). The lid, also decorated in camaieu, features a knob shaped like a yellow rosebud; some of the petals are damaged (see photo). The cup has two intertwined handles. It dates to the late 18th century, between 1770 and 1790, produced at the Doccia factory and painted by Fanciullacci. For comparison, see: L. Ginori Lisci, La porcellana di Doccia, 1963, Plate LIII
