Description

A beautiful pair of antique velvet curtains, dating from the late 19th century, around 1880. The velvet features a magnificent warm brown hue with coppery highlights, which is particularly rich and luminous. Depending on the angle of the light, the fabric reveals delicate variations in shade that lend great depth to the overall effect. With their generous drape, these curtains feature a soft and full drape, which looks particularly elegant when hung. Their great height also allows them to be used as wall hangings or large decorative panels. A particularly warm fabric that will fit just as well in a historic home as in a contemporary interior seeking authentic materials and character. The pair comes with wooden rings, allowing for easy installation on a suitable rod. Period: circa 1880 Dimensions: 285
