Description

An elegant decorative series consisting of three obelisks of different sizes, crafted in patinated bronze and adorned with engraved motifs inspired by Egyptian art. Each obelisk rests on an intricate stepped base, also decorated with Egyptian-style figures and symbols. A thin slab of Roman broccatello marble separates the bronze structure from the lower base made of Belgian black marble. The perimeter is embellished with four brass columns connected by metal chains. The varying heights of the three elements create a balanced and visually striking composition, particularly well-suited as a centerpiece, on a console table, on a sideboard, or as part of a collection dedicated to Egyptian-inspired design. The objects retain their patina and natural signs of aging, visible in the
