Description

A pair of Louis XVI-style mahogany nightstands; one features three drawers on the front, while the other has one drawer and a niche. The white and gray marble tops are framed by an openwork brass rail. The front and back legs are rounded, and the marble tops and openwork frames follow this curve. The legs are fluted and adorned with brass bands; the drawers and sides are embellished with brass strips. The four sheathed legs feature a ring at the top and end in a shoe. These high-quality nightstands are in very good original condition.
