

System Dagger With Flintlock Pistol. Germany, 18th Century.

7 500 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

Sharkskin grip and pommel with a chiseled lion's head, gilded bronze mount, guard with two curved, inverted quillons. Handle engraved with a scallop shell motif. Straight blade with a flat back, decorated at the heel with foliage and flowers, highlighted in gold. Swans-neck crossguard with a round body, gold-backed guard; the blade, still in its original blued finish and only lightly cleaned, is decorated with a continuous pattern along its sides. This type of piece is very rare in this condition from this period. Total length: 76 cm
Blade length: 59.5 cm Caliber: 9 mm
<https://www.proantic.com/magazine/dague-de-chasse-a-systeme/>

Dealer

Collection

Rare & Unusual Objects

Mobile : 0032475266745

Mons 7000