Description

An elegant, small display cabinet made of mahogany and mahogany veneer in the Louis XVI style, dating from the 19th century, with rich decoration featuring chiseled and gilded bronze accents. The upper section features curved glass sides and two glass shelves. It opens with a door and has a drawer along the base. The top is made of white marble in perfect condition, framed by an openwork brass railing. The lower section is connected by a white marble crossbar curved at the sides, in perfect condition. Both back panels are mirrored. Richly decorated with chiseled and gilded bronze: fluting, friezes, scrollwork, and clogs. This beautiful display cabinet is in perfect condition.
