Description

A charming Viennese bronze pen wiper depicting a brown bear standing on all four legs. The bronze features expressive engraving, with particular attention to detail in the rendering of the animal's fur and head. The back houses the section designed to wipe and clean the tips of metal nibs. Presented with a natural bristle insert, likely from a wild boar. An original and decorative desk accessory, full of character, that will appeal to both lovers of animal-themed bronzes and collectors of writing-related objects. Viennese craftsmanship from the late 19th or early 20th century.
