Description

A large, three-part wall panel composed of ceramic tiles from the 1960s and 1970s and brass that has been worked and patinated in various ways, forming a luminous and contrasting relief checkerboard pattern. Warm and luminous, this exceptional wall art complements all interior styles and will add a touch of both luxury and poetry to your space... Dimensions as shown in the photo: Height 120 cm x Width 292 cm, with a 30-cm gap between the two halves; of course, the gap can be adjusted to be wider or narrower depending on the desired coverage area. In the photos, the two halves are shown 30 cm apart from each other... Each half-panel can be installed either side by side or spaced apart by the desired distance...
