Description

A charming pastel portrait of a young child wearing a pretty mauve bow around his neck. This magnificent pastel portrait has retained its beautiful colors. It is signed "J. Dagon" in the lower right corner. It is sold in a beautiful oval, gilded frame topped with a Louis XVI-style bow and decorated with laurel leaves. Jeanne Dagon (1873-1949), born in Lyon, was a student of J. Lefebvre, B. Constant, and J.P. Laurens. She began exhibiting portraits and figures in pastel, as well as watercolor flowers, in Paris as early as 1892 and received an honorable mention.
