Description

A magnificent composition by Otto Gampert. Impressionist landscape. Very beautiful, delicate, and luminous brushwork. Otto Gampert was born in 1842 in Ottenbach, Switzerland. He died in 1924 in Zurich. 19th-20th centuries. Painter of lively landscapes, landscapes, mountain landscapes, water landscapes, and engraver. He participated in exhibitions in Munich, notably in 1888 and 1889. His works are on display at the Pina Museum in Munich. The canvas is in very good condition. The canvas itself is a nice size, 73 cm x 50 cm, equivalent to a 20 Marine. It is set in a superb Montparnasse frame made of carved and patinated wood with keys. External dimensions: 90 cm x 68 cm.
