Description

A Spanish walnut table dating from the second half of the 19th century, crafted in the style of 17th-century Spanish Baroque furniture. The table features drawer fronts carved with geometric motifs and rests on four distinctive spiral-turned legs connected by a rectangular base. The table appears to have been assembled at different times. The turned legs, in particular, have an older patina and may be reused elements from an 18th-century piece of furniture. The drawers and hardware are more recent. Dimensions: 162 L x 78 P x 79 H
