Description

A fine Empire-style frame in stucco and gilded wood, mounted with keys. The gilding is original, slightly worn but with a lovely patina. Some scuffs on the side. It is sold with its original cardboard backing, to which has been glued an 18th-century engraving from the Delamarche firm, famous for its globes, depicting the Copernican system, but is, unfortunately, severely deteriorated. Frame dimensions: 40 cm x 49 cm
