Description

Grand Mahogany Bookcase - Empire / Restoration Period - 20th Century A grand and elegant mahogany bookcase, featuring the sober and monumental design characteristic of the Empire style and the early Restoration period. The perfectly balanced front features two large glass doors in the center, framed by posts adorned with rich gilded bronze appliqués featuring palmette and foliage motifs. The side sections are closed off by two large solid doors, which particularly highlight the mahogany's beautiful, dynamic grain. The upper cornice, which projects significantly, is accentuated in the center by an elegant gilded bronze ornament featuring foliage and rosettes. The interior offers ample storage space thanks to its numerous shelves, perfect for displaying a beautiful collection of books, objets
