Description

Pair of mahogany, marble, and openwork brass hot-water bottle tables - Louis XVI style An elegant pair of round tables, each resting on a mahogany tripod base. The circular top is made of light-veined marble, set within a openwork brass rim featuring geometric decoration, accented by concentric moldings. Each side table rests on a turned, tapered central shaft, ending in three curved legs arranged in a star pattern, giving the piece a particularly light and elegant silhouette. The contrast between the warmth of the mahogany, the light hue of the marble, and the gilded brass gives this pair a beautiful decorative appearance, in the style of Louis XVI-style furniture. Ideal as end tables, side tables, or small coffee tables. Dimensions of each pedestal table: Height: 60 cm Diameter: 36 cm In good
