

Louis XVI-style Bowl / Planter Made Of Thick Crystal And Gilded Bronze

450 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Crystal

Description

Crystal and Gilded Bronze Bowl / Planter - Louis XVI Style
An elegant bowl or small planter made of thick crystal and gilded bronze, featuring exquisite decorative detail. The crystal vessel, rectangular in shape with beveled edges and slightly curved sides, is set within a rich gilded bronze mount inspired by the Louis XVI style. The mount is particularly well-crafted, adorned with cascading laurel garlands, suspended between uprights decorated with acanthus leaves and foliage motifs. The entire piece is accented with pearl friezes and finely chiseled classical motifs. The contrast between the transparency of the crystal and the gilded bronze lends this piece great elegance. It can be displayed as a decorative bowl, tabletop planter, trinket dish, or centerpiece. A beautiful decorative

Dealer

Leleu Antiquités

Généraliste

Mobile : 0607415540

Varredes 77910

piece, ideal for a console table, a chest of drawers, or a table. Dimensions: Length: 17 cm Width: 12 cm Height: 9.5 cm Materials: crystal and gilded bronze Style: Louis XVI