Description

A rare 750/°° (18-karat) yellow gold medallion pendant featuring a 1913 U.S. $10 gold coin. One side is engraved with the head of a Native American wearing a feathered headdress; the other features the bald eagle, the symbol of the United States. The coin is simply set within a smooth border that perfectly follows its shape and is held in place by a delicately engraved bail. A piece of jewelry that pays homage to U.S. history with understated elegance.
