Description

A beautiful Louis-Philippe period chest of drawers, circa 1830-1850, crafted from solid walnut. The front features three large drawers veneered in walnut, embellished with fine marquetry bands that elegantly highlight their frames. Solid walnut top. Traditionally crafted to a high standard, with drawers joined using dovetail joints. The walnut features a lovely patina and beautiful grain. The chest retains its three locks as well as its three original keys, all in perfect working order. In good overall condition, with some signs of wear consistent with its age. Period: Louis-Philippe, circa 1830-1850 Material: solid walnut and walnut veneer Dimensions: H. 90 W. 123 D. 57 cm Delivery within Metropolitan France: EUR150. Contact us for more information
