Description

A rare large Odetta stoneware dish from the HB factory in Quimper, typical of the Art Deco stoneware production of the era, created in 1925. This is a large dish titled "Shepherdess" (or An Douar), designed by Pierre Abadie-Landel (1896-1972). This painter and engraver was one of the founding members of the famous Breton artistic movement Ar Seiz Breur (The Seven Brothers). 30 cm in diameter. In very good condition; note 2 or 3 bubbles in the enamel from firing (see photos)
