Description

A charming set of polychrome glazed porcelain pieces depicting a pair of blue tits perched on a stylized branch. The birds are depicted in dynamic, natural poses--one with its wings spread, the other leaning forward. The modeling work by the Karl Ens manufactory is remarkably delicate, particularly in the detail of the feathers and the realism of the expressions. The color palette is wonderfully fresh, blending subtle shades of cobalt blue, soft green, and bright yellow, which contrast elegantly with the immaculate whiteness of the branch.
