Description

A richly carved mahogany double folding frame, adorned with finely chiseled gilded bronze figures depicting putti, scrollwork, and floral motifs. Probably a French piece from the late 19th century (Napoleon III style / early Belle Époque). Designed to showcase family portraits, this frame holds six photographs or miniatures side by side, offering an elegant and intimate display ideal for a desk, mantelpiece, or dresser. The composition and the gilding with its patina highlight the faces and details of the portraits, creating a warm setting for family memories. Condition: very good overall condition. Gilding with a patina consistent with its age. Hinges are functional, glass panes are in place, and the backing boards are clean. Dimensions: height 26 cm; width when closed 19 cm; width
