Description

A set of six 19th-century engravings, dating from around 1860. The images depict classical figures and sculptures from Greco-Roman mythology and antiquity, rendered with fine, detailed lines. The engravings are printed on paper and show slight signs of wear and slight discoloration, consistent with their age. The entire series has recently been reframed with mat boards in sleek black frames. Sold as a complete set of six engravings. Dimensions: 42.5 H x 32.5 L
