Description

Georges Villa (1883-1965) was a French painter known for the delicacy of his watercolors and the sensuality of his figurative compositions. His elegant line work and mastery of wash techniques allowed him to capture the grace of the female form with great lightness. This watercolor with light gouache highlights, dated 1945, depicts a standing female nude in an intimate scene. A handwritten inscription at the bottom of the sheet adds a narrative and personal dimension to the work. The paper is sound and the overall condition is very good. Technique: Watercolor and highlights (probably light gouache) Medium: Paper Dimensions: 32 × 25 cm Subject: Standing female nude, intimate scene, handwritten inscription at the bottom Signature: Signed and dated in the lower right corner Date:
