Description

Jean-Gabriel Domergue (1883-1962) was one of the most famous portrait artists of the Belle Époque and the Roaring Twenties. Known for his depictions of elegant and mischievous women, he embodied the Parisian spirit of an era when femininity was being reinvented. His lively and spirited drawings are highly sought after by collectors today. This pencil drawing, dated June 24, 1916, depicts the portrait of an elegant young woman wearing a cloche hat. The spontaneous and expressive line, the liveliness of her gaze, and the grace of the composition attest to Domergue's talent in the art of the quick portrait. The work is presented in an antique gilded frame. Technique: Pencil drawing Medium: Paper Dimensions: 28 × 19 cm (without frame) Subject: Portrait of an elegant young woman wearing a cloche
