Description

An elegant antique wooden display bookcase, consisting of two sections. The upper section opens with two large glass doors featuring a geometric lattice pattern, providing a beautiful display for a collection of books, art objects, or decorative items. The interior is fitted with several shelves. The lower section features two drawers along the base, topped by two solid doors with molded panels, providing additional storage space. The piece stands out for its beautiful proportions, its ornate cornice, and the richness of its wood grain. Its simple yet elegant design evokes 19th-century English furniture, allowing it to fit seamlessly into a library, living room, office, or gallery. A beautiful piece that is both decorative and functional, particularly well-suited for displaying collectibles. Dimensions: H190 x
