Description

An elegant, curved Louis XV-style chest of drawers featuring three wide drawers on the front. It features a lovely, flowing silhouette, with a rounded front, curved side panels, and arched legs topped with scrolls. The bottom rail is adorned with a carved motif of foliage and shells, typical of the Louis XV decorative style. The three drawers are fitted with drop-down handles and keyholes in gilded metal, adding a beautiful balance to the piece. The wooden top, with rounded corners, retains a beautiful patina as well as various marks and signs of wear that contribute to the piece's character. The chest of drawers offers ample storage space while remaining highly decorative. It will easily find its place in a bedroom, entryway, or living room, whether in a classic interior or a more contemporary
