Description

Paul Charlot (1906-1985) was a French artist whose graphic work is distinguished by a fluid, spontaneous, and deeply expressive line. His pencil drawings, executed with great freedom of line, capture the essence of movement and the human form with remarkable economy of means. This pencil drawing depicts a group of stylized figures with elongated, intertwined silhouettes. The composition, both dynamic and poetic, reflects Charlot's inventive freedom in his figure studies. The work is presented in a light oak frame. Technique: Pencil drawing Medium: Paper Dimensions: 35 × 25 cm unframed Subject: Figures Signature: Signed lower right Condition: Good Frame: Light oak frame This work is offered by PACART after verification of its authenticity and stylistic consistency.
