are Meinertzhagen's wonderfully precise drawings of netsuke. The plates provide a hand-drawn facsimile of the artist's signature, accurately capturing the sculptor's original calligraphy and his kakihan. Meinertzhagen has included historical background, critical commentary, notes on various artists, and collecting methods in the plates, along with illustrations of approximately 100 unsigned netsuke. The books also include photographs, correspondence, and personal reflections from those who knew Meinertzhagen, providing a comprehensive and detailed account of his life and work."
