Description

A refined and elegant triptych from the late 19th century, consisting of two vases and a centerpiece bowl, crafted from fine Baccarat crystal in a deep cobalt blue, finely hand-engraved with geometric and star-shaped motifs of great precision and brilliance. The vases, slender and well-balanced in their proportions, feature rich, deep-cut engraving that enhances the purity of the crystal and the brilliance of the light. The bowl, with its extraordinary visual impact, is embellished with a finely crafted silver mount, featuring a beaded rim, shaped feet, and an upper handle--elements that lend the ensemble a character of great decorative refinement. The harmonious combination of the crystal's deep blue and the purity of the silver attests to the excellence of late 19th-century French craftsmanship, making this
