Description

An elegant Louis XVI-style cylinder desk, featuring exquisite geometric marquetry with latticework motifs, visible on the cylinder, the side panels, and the drawer fronts. The cylinder opens to reveal an interior fitted with compartments, niches, and small drawers, as well as a writing surface upholstered in dark leather. The lower section features three belt-style drawers, also decorated with marquetry. The piece rests on four tapered legs, topped with small brass ferrules, matching the hardware and drawer pulls. The piece features elegant proportions and fine decorative quality, typical of the Louis XVI style. Dimensions: H104 x W98 x D48
