Description

An important and beautiful pastel depicting a lady of distinction holding a book, Louis XVI period, circa 1775, 18th century, French school. Private collection; has always belonged to the same family through inheritance. In perfect condition. Dimensions: Frame: h. 92 cm x w. 77 cm. Pastel: h. 71 cm x w. 56.5 cm. Finely carved gilded wood frame with its original glass. We present a pastel of a lady of high standing in the pure tradition of 18th-century portraits, intimate, gazing at the viewer, reminiscent of those of Queen Marie Antoinette painted by the famous portraitist Elisabeth Vigée Le Brun (1755-1842).
