

18-karat Gold Bird-shaped Brooch With Natural Jade And A Ruby

2 590 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gold

Description

An elegant bird-shaped brooch crafted in 18-karat yellow gold, with a total weight of 14.11 grams, featuring a refined naturalistic design and meticulous sculptural craftsmanship. The bird's body is embellished with a striking natural oval cabochon-cut jade, measuring approximately 2.20 x 1.80 cm, characterized by delicate shades of green and the stone's natural color variations. The wings are finely modeled in gold and worked in relief to reproduce the individual feathers, giving the composition a pleasing sense of movement and lightness. The tail is also crafted using grooved and overlapping elements, while the long neck and beak are defined by soft, sinuous lines. The bird's eye is embellished with a small round ruby weighing approximately 0.05 carats, which creates a refined point of color contrast.
