

16th-century Oak Paneling

680 EUR

Period : 16th century

Condition : A restaurer

Material : Solid wood

Width : 93 cm

Height : 182 cm

Depth : 2,5 cm

Description

Oak paneling featuring a six-panel design known as "napkin-fold." This paneling element was repurposed as a door, which explains the presence of drill holes on the three crossbars. These holes were likely used to attach hinges. This piece deserves a thorough restoration but can be used as a decorative item or as a headboard.
