Description

A stunning and luminous oil-on-canvas painting depicting a generous bouquet of white, pink, and purple peonies, elegantly arranged in a patinated bronze vase. This high-quality work is signed in the lower left corner by the renowned Hungarian artist Adrienne Henczné Deák (1890-1956), whose floral still lifes are particularly sought after for their remarkable treatment of light, the freshness of their color palette, and the vibrant texture of the petals. The interplay of shadows and the subtlety of the color transitions lend this composition great depth and a subdued atmosphere typical of the first half of the 20th century. The painting is highlighted by its imposing and sumptuous period frame made of wood and gilded stucco, richly adorned with volutes, rocaille motifs, and foliage scrolls at the
