

Limoges Porcelain Advertising Rooster For P. Bardinnet Spirits

120 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Porcelain

Length : 22 cm

Height : 26,5

Description

Porcelain rooster associated with the P. Bardinnet company A promotional or collectible item produced for the Bardinnet company The rooster is hollow with an open beak, and can be used as a decanter Paul Bardinnet began his career as a liqueur maker in Limoges in the 19th century before creating Négrita rum The company often commissioned ceramic and porcelain manufacturers to produce pitchers, carafes, or decorative pieces (such as polychrome ceramic roosters) in the colors of their spirits This piece has a crack or hairline on the body

Dealer

Objets de Jean Schneider

Art de la table

Mobile : 0650357151

Le Presbytère, 166 rue route de l'église

Saint-Barthelemy 40390