

Gilded Bronze Fire Screen In The Louis XV Style - Napoleon III Period, Circa 1880

1 100 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

Gilded bronze fireplace screen in the Louis XV style - Napoleon III period, circa 1880. Elegant antique gilded bronze fireplace screen, crafted in the Louis XV style, dating from the late 19th century, around 1880. A very beautiful piece with particularly rich ornamentation, featuring a dynamic frame composed of volutes, rocaille motifs, foliage, and openwork designs, characteristic of the rocaille decorative repertoire. The central section is adorned with a charming gilded bronze decoration depicting two winged putti positioned on either side of a blazing brazier, a motif particularly well-suited to the object's function. The piece rests on two elegant, richly ornate legs adorned with foliage. The gilded bronze structure frames a fine protective metal mesh, thus preserving its original function.

Dealer

Leleu Antiquités

Généraliste

Mobile : 0607415540

Varredes 77910

while serving as a beautiful decorative element in front of a fireplace. The quality of the engraving, the abundance of ornamentation, and the beautiful proportions make this a highly decorative fire screen, perfectly suited for a classical interior, a historic home, or an 18th-century-style decor. Period: late 19th century, circa 1880 Style: Louis XV / Rocaille Material: gilded bronze and metal mesh Dimensions: height 73 cm × width 75 cm In good overall condition considering its age, with some slight signs of wear consistent with the object's age. DELIVERY ONLY IN PARIS AND THE ÎLE-DE-FRANCE REGION FOR 85.00 EUROS For delivery to other locations, please provide your ZIP code and city so I can make a request with the shipping carriers