Description

Jacques Barraband (1767-1809) Eastern Rosella (Perruche onicore), Plate No. 29 from François Levaillant's Histoire naturelle des perroquets (Natural History of Parrots). Paris, Langlois printing house, c. 1805. A fine antique hand-colored ornithological engraving depicting an Eastern Rosella. The plate bears the inscriptions "Barraband pinx." and "De l'Imprimerie de Langlois." Plate dimensions: 38 × 27 cm. Presented in an elegant antique gilt frame with a lined mat. Condition: Good overall condition considering its age. The paper shows an aged patina, some foxing, and minor signs of aging. Note a slight color variation in the lower section, corresponding to the mat's previous positioning. The print has been remounted to fully reveal the title "Perruche onicore." Some
