Description

A beautiful, large First Empire-style lamp dating from the early 19th century. Very nice size, 45 cm high at the socket. The base consists of a magnificent vase decorated in the center with an imperial eagle on one side and a capital-letter eagle on the other. The gilding is of very high quality and has retained all its luster and patina. The lamp is in excellent overall condition, and the electrical components are in good working order. Note the quality of the carving and chiseling of the swans, which lend the piece great elegance. A luminous piece with great decorative appeal. Shipping available within France and worldwide via secure, insured package with order tracking. Lampshade not included due to some signs of wear. Invoice and certificate provided.
