

Louis Cretté In Brussels Porcelain Bowl Decorated With A Garland And Polychrome Bouquets

100 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 10,5 cm

Height : 5,5 cm

Description

Brussels, workshop of Louis Cretté, circa 1790-1810. Small white porcelain bowl, flared in shape, resting on a molded pedestal. It is decorated with an elegant garland consisting of a pink ribbon intertwined with leafy sprigs, accompanied by small bouquets of polychrome flowers. Gilded border around the rim. Hand-painted decoration in blue, red, yellow, and green, accented with gold. Mark painted in red on the reverse. Dimensions: diameter 10.5 cm; height 5.5 cm. Good overall condition, with normal wear on the gilding and decoration.

Dealer

Ostade Antiques

Brussels based antique dealer specialised in 18th and 19th century antiques

Mobile : +32 486251211

Bruxelles 1030