

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Bookcase, Display Cabinet, Henri II Style, 19th-century Walnut

980 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Walnut

Description

Impressive Henri II-style walnut display bookcase - 19th century
Impressive and elegant walnut display bookcase in the Henri II/Neo-Renaissance style, dating from the 19th century. This large, three-door model features a richly architected front, punctuated by beautiful turned and carved columns. Each door includes a large glass panel, allowing for the display of books, porcelain, or collectibles. The lower sections are adorned with molded geometric panels featuring diamond-point motifs, characteristic of the Neo-Renaissance decorative style. The upper section is particularly striking with its wide, molded and carved cornice, crowned by an elegant openwork gallery with small balusters, finished at the ends with turned ornaments. The interior features numerous

Dealer

Galerie Christophe Elisabeth

Galerie Christophe Elisabeth

Mobile : 06 99 48 80 76

1 domaine de Montrabech

Lézignan-Corbières 11200

adjustable shelves, the edges of which are accented with red trim, offering ample storage and display space. The lower section opens with three large drawers featuring fluted fronts and metal handles. A beautiful, large bookcase, offering balanced proportions and fine cabinetmaking craftsmanship. Its large glass surface and proportions make it a particularly decorative piece for a library, living room, or gallery. Style: Henry II / Neo-Renaissance Period: 19th century Wood: walnut Dimensions: Height: 255 cm Width: 191 cm Depth: 55.5 cm