Description

Louis XV Provençal Wardrobe in Walnut - 18th Century
A beautiful and substantial Provençal wardrobe in solid walnut, dating from the 18th century, featuring elegant decoration characteristic of the Louis XV style. It opens at the front with two large molded and carved doors, composed of dynamic panels. The carving is particularly decorative, featuring a repertoire of shells, flowers, foliage, and volutes, elegantly arranged on the door transoms. The upper crossbar is adorned with a delicate carved floral design. The lower crossbar, heavily scalloped and carved with a central shell flanked by foliage and flowers, rests on beautiful scroll-style legs. Also noteworthy are its long, carved keyholes and large metal pins, which contribute to the character of this cabinet. The interior, with ample storage
