Description

Pair of Model 699 "Superleggera" chairs, designed by Gio Ponti (1891-1979) for Cassina (unsigned) in 1957. The model is characterized by a very slender ash frame, triangular-section legs, and a woven seat. Cassina specifies that the original version features a solid ash frame combined with a seat made of Indian rattan. The two pieces shown here are made of dark brown-stained ash, with seats woven from natural fibers. Dimensions: H 83 × W 40 × D 45 cm; seat height 45 cm. Good overall condition; see photos.
