An elegant mid-20th century set of eleven French crystal stemmed glasses by Baccarat, in the Burgos pattern, distinguished by its richly cut geometric decoration and beautifully balanced proportions. Each glass features an intricate arrangement of deep intersecting cuts, elongated pointed motifs and diamond-shaped facets, creating a particularly brilliant play of light across the crystal. The rounded bowl is set on a slender faceted stem, elegantly punctuated by a rounded knob above the circular foot. The combination of the elaborate cut decoration with the restrained classical silhouette gives the Burgos pattern a sophisticated and timeless character. The underside of the foot bears the Baccarat mark, identifying the celebrated French crystal manufacturer renowned internationally for the quality and brilliance of its production. Offered here as a matching set of eleven, these glasses make a particularly attractive group for collectors of Baccarat and fine French tableware. Their relatively small and elegant proportions make them suitable for serving wine, liqueurs or other drinks, while their highly decorative cut crystal also creates a striking presentation when displayed together. The glasses are in attractive vintage condition, with minor traces of use consistent with age. Please refer to the photographs for further details of condition. Dimensions (each glass): Height: 11.5 cm (4.53 in) Diameter: Ø 5 cm (1.97 in)
