Description

Charming dragonfly necklace, "Ice Light" model by Lalique. This beautiful necklace pays homage to René Lalique's Art Nouveau work with these two dragonflies--typical of the 1900s style--flanking a triangular-shaped medallion of cut crystal. It is enhanced by a second suspended crystal pendant. Very high quality; the entire piece is made of solid silver plated with a thin layer of gold (vermeil). These pieces are no longer available for sale; they were originally priced well over 1,000 euros in stores. The necklace is in perfect condition, in its original case with all hallmarks attesting to its material--ideal as a gift. A very pretty piece of jewelry, a hallmark of style
