Description

Description :Elegant set of eight French cut crystal stemmed glasses by Baccarat, in the Burgos pattern, displaying the distinctive geometric cutting and refined proportions associated with this beautiful design. Each glass features a rounded bowl richly decorated with a complex arrangement of deeply cut facets, including elongated pointed forms, intersecting geometric motifs and diamond-like elements that create a remarkable play of light throughout the crystal. The bowl is supported by an elegant faceted stem terminating in a pronounced rounded knop and a broad circular foot. This combination of a richly worked bowl and architectural stem gives the Burgos pattern a particularly sophisticated presence while retaining the clarity and balance characteristic of fine Baccarat tableware. The glasses bear the Baccarat mark beneath the base, identifying their manufacture by the renowned French crystal house. Offered as a matching set of eight, they are ideal for use as wine glasses and would make an elegant addition to a Baccarat collection or a beautifully appointed dining table. The generous cut decoration produces exceptional brilliance when illuminated, while the relatively restrained silhouette allows the pattern itself to remain the principal decorative feature. A fine example of French crystal craftsmanship, combining functionality with an unmistakably luxurious decorative quality. The glasses present in attractive vintage condition, with minor traces of use consistent with age. Please refer to the photographs for further details.
