Description

Ancient bronze sculpture depicting a man on an elephant
Patinated bronze statuette, cast, depicting a man on an elephant in full stride
Its hollow structure and the irregularities on its surface clearly indicate that this sculpture was created using the lost-wax casting technique
In Southeast Asian art, a figure riding an elephant and wearing a tall, pointed headdress often represents a warrior or a deity
In Hindu and Buddhist contexts, this depiction often portrays the deity Indra riding his divine mount, Erawan
11 cm wide, 7 cm deep, and 14 cm tall
Total weight: 371 grams
Late 19th-century Southeast Asian art
