Description

Curved Louis XIV-era chest of drawers in marquetry--gilded bronze fittings Elegant curved chest of drawers in marquetry, featuring a dynamic front that opens with three wide drawers. The front is particularly decorative, punctuated by different types of wood with contrasting grain patterns, arranged in panels and frames. The top features this beautiful marquetry work, with a symmetrical composition that highlights the natural hues of the woods used. The three drawers are fitted with beautiful drooping handles and bronze lock plates, featuring intricate foliage and rocaille motifs. The rounded side panels harmoniously extend the curves of the front and rest on short legs. A chest of drawers with character, featuring generous proportions and a beautiful antique patina, particularly
